

HOW MUCH DO TRUCK DRIVERS MAKE?

Trail Blazer

Owner-Operator w/Multiple Trucks

- Revenue is limited only by the number of trucks/drivers you can keep productive.
- Must have good business controls in place.
- You are bound only by your motivation, talent, and market forces.

Pioneer

Lease-Purchase Owner-Operator under carrier authority

Hired Gun

Owner-Operator under carrier authority with own truck

- Carrier pays far greater percentage of total revenue per mile.
- Responsibility/risk for controlling many of the costs.
- Earnings potential can increase 10% to 30% over Company Driver.

Lone Ranger

Owner-Operator w/ Own Authority

- Negotiating rates directly with customers.
- Significant upside to working with high quality customers.
- Total control of how much money you can earn.

Company Driver

- Good and consistent income.
- Potential for bonuses and increases based on seniority.
- The upside is limited.
